Dear quilters,

On this beautiful sunny February day, the snow is at last beginning to melt. That couldn't come soon enough for me! In fact I just went through my quilting books to find a flowery springtime quilt to make and settled on lovely quilt featuring lilac fabric with purples and greens. If lilacs aren't a sign of spring in Rochester, I don't know what is! There are sure to be more snowy days in Rochester so that I can work on those flannel quilts I'm making my son and daughter for their March birthdays but on those sunny days you can bet that the lilac quilt will be my number one choice.

Just to give you a little inside information, Pat Ientilucci has given me the dates for the annual Club quilt retreat at the Holiday Inn Express in Webster. Those dates are Friday, November 13 through Sunday, November 15. The prices will remain the same as last year with the best value being 4 in a suite for $99. That's the deal I took last year and I brought 2 Lean Cuisine frozen entrees for dinner Friday and Saturday nights so I could use my cash for our fabric excursion to Scarlet Thread on Saturday! Of course eating out is an option if you wish. Pat chose a great place for this event. Holiday Inn Express has an outstanding free breakfast buffet, a spacious well lit room for quilting, and a very warm pool and hot tub for relaxing. Pat is already taking reservations and will help pair you up with "roomies" if necessary. Perhaps this is something your loved ones could give you as a birthday gift, Mother's Day gift, or a just because you're you gift!! A deposit to reserve your spot will be due by the May meeting with the balance due at the September meeting. Don't miss out on a great opportunity to quilt with your fellow members. If you have further questions, see Pat at the next meeting.

Another opportunity for you is our "Quilting Buddies" volunteers who will help answer your quilting questions. So far we have three members who have stepped forward to assist you. Penny Schumacher is your resource for paper piecing, hand quilting, etc. (she'll define "etc." for you). You may contact her by phone 467-0932 or pschumac@rochester.rr.com. Jeanne Muhl will help you with hand piecing or needle turn applique. Call her at 336-9459. Brenda McHale will help you with questions about color choices or as she calls it "color anything". Her phone number is 621-1751. Brenda coordinates our Friday night Sew Nights at the Church so that's another good spot to have her help you with color selections. Thanks to these members who have come forth to help. If you'd like to be a "Quilting Buddies" let me know.
